January the 6. 1641.

REport came to the Committee of the House of Commons, sitting at Guild-Hall in London, that John Williams, Arch-Bishop of Yorke, late Bishop of Lincolne, provided 1500. Armes, which hee bargained with one M. Nalian, in Baldens Rents, in Gray-lane-Lane, at fourteene pound the score, to provide for him, all which was done but some few daies before the said Bishop of Yorke with the other 11. Bishops were Committed to the Tower for high Treason: And these Armes, the Complainant doth not doubt but to discover where they are to be found.

As witness is, y<sup>e</sup> y<sup>e</sup> and,

Also the said Gentleman (who discovered this plot, being a Gentleman of the Inner Temple.) did report to some friends of his that he went with the Cavilliers at White Hall: and here promised that it grieved him to see what debaucht men the Cavellists were.

And he demanded of some of them, whether they did not intend to stand out against the Parliament especially against M. Pimpe, &c.

And one of them answered to this effect, that he loved M. Pimpe from the bottome of his hart, he knew him to be so honest a Gentleman and so harmles: and moreover they said that they would not by any meanes offer the least hurt in the world to any Member of the House.

But they said, that they had a good mind to pillidge the City.

There was a debate about their sitting on the morrow being Fryday, the 7. of Jan. 1641. about their sitting in some more convenient place. Some propounded Guild Hall to be a convenient place in respect (not only of that Hall alone but) because Haberdashers Hall is so nere to it also. others thought Grocers Hall fitter for the purpose, &c.

Resolved upon the question.

That the Committee should meete on the next day (being Fryday, at Grocers Hall.
